OLD GUARD DEMOCRATS PLAY HOGGISH GAME

Trying to Block Proposed Deal to Get Bull Moose Votes —McCombs Wants to Give Moosers Voice in Platform—Taggart Fights Plan.

St. Louis, June 13. — The Democratic Old Guard, playing the same game by which the G. O. P. Old Guard disrupted the G. O. P. in 1912, are getting busy here.

Democratic leaders, who are working earnestly for the re-election of Wilson, have been laying plans which would coax Bull Moosers to the support of Wilson. Among them are many who believe that the Democrats should go so far as to hold a conference with Bull Moose leaders before the Democratic platform is adopted.

They argue that only in this way can they convince the Bull Moosers of their sincerity—that in this way they can show the 4,000,000 voters of the Progressive party that Wilson is more entitled to their support than is Hughes.

The plan has been working out beautifully since the Moosers discovered that Roosevelt's feet were only made of clay. Big men in the Demo-
